

The Migrant Resource Centre of South Australia invites you to attend a community health training seminar on

Supporting the Health and Wellbeing of New Arrival Humanitarian Entrants

Wednesday 23 September 2009
9.30am to 2.00pm
at
59 King William Street, Adelaide

GPs, community health services, immunisation clinics, school psychologists, and providers of women's health, youth health, children's health and mental health services are welcome to register for the seminar

To register for the training seminar, complete and return the accompanying registration form by

Monday 21 September 2009

to Ms Matti Spellacy,

(email) admin@mrca.com.au or (fax) 08-8217 9556

For additional information, contact Dr Joseph Masika on (tel) 08-8217 9510

Supporting the Health and Wellbeing of New Arrival Humanitarian Entrants

Seminar Program

Facilitator: Joseph Masika, Manager, Multicultural Health Advocacy, MRCSA

- 9 - 9.15am Registration, welcome and introductions
- 9.15am Overview of health initiatives for humanitarian entrants
Ms Eugenia Tsoulis, CEO, MRCSA
- 9.30am Presentations
Humanitarian entrants' health status and referral system in South Australia
Joseph Masika, Manager, Multicultural Health Advocacy, MRCSA
- Short term torture and trauma assessment, counseling and referrals for humanitarian entrants*
Mr. Tindaro Fallo, Consultant Clinical Psychologist, Multicultural Health Advocacy, MRCSA
- Mental health services for children and young people*
Monica McEvoy, Multicultural Mental Health CAMHS Western Region
- 10.30am Morning Tea
- 11.00am Presentations
How the care workers can identify and work with humanitarian entrants with history of torture and trauma
Anne Bourne, Psychologist, Survivors of Torture and Trauma Assistance & Rehabilitation Services (STTARS)
- Preventative health and health services for the newly arrived migrants in South Australia*
Ms Jan Williams, Clinical Services Coordinator, Migrant Health Service
- Women's health in new and emerging communities*
Ms Rene Weal Women's Health Statewide
- 12.30pm Panel Discussion of service providers
Mr. Tindaro Fallo, Ms Rene Weal, Ms Jan Williams, Ms Anne Bourne and Monica McEvoy
- 1.00pm Lunch
- 2.00pm Close

Supporting the Health and Wellbeing of New Arrival Humanitarian Entrants

Seminar Registration Form

I will be attending the training seminar on Wednesday 23 September 2009, 9.30am – 2.00pm
at 59 King William Street, Adelaide

Name: .....

Organization: .....

Address: .....

.....

Telephone: .....

Fax: .....

Email: .....

Any special requirements (eg dietary): .....

.....

Please email or fax your completed registration form by Monday 21 September 2009
to Ms Matti Spellacy at admin@mrca.com.au or (08) 8217 9556

Additional information about the seminar can also be obtained from
Dr Masika on (tel) (08) 8217 9510