Pedagogy that makes a difference ...

The 2010 Educational Futures Annual Conference will be held on Monday, 22 November, 2010 at Flinders University campus, Adelaide, Australia.

The conference will highlight research into pedagogy that makes a difference.

Themes will include:

- rural and remote education
- educational systems and policy
- curriculum
- the school environment
- languages
- social justice
- special education
- early childhood
- leadership and management

Academics and researchers from Flinders University will join to present their work.

The day will commence with a keynote presentation from noted Australian scholar Professor Robert Lingard, and culminate with a mixed panel presentation, comprising students and educational leaders.

Professor Lingard is internationally-renowned in the areas of sociology of education, and education policy. He has published prolifically, and is a member of the Board of the National Centre for Student Enquiry in Higher Education.
